

an. His qualifica-
a successful farmer
the National move-
posed by Mr Wm.
l seconded by Mr

BBATOIR.

leration over twelve
t been selected for attoir, estimated to re than one site has elay occasioned in nexecusable. The rchants' Quay has ideal location, but
the ground of its tre of the city. It
some decision was present system of
the veterinary staff
in their work.

BOGS.

ing of the Newport
Society, Mr D. F.
a letter was read
, T.D., stating that ell (Newport area)
mediate'y by the Irish division, and that schemes will be
also stated that he
ion to the Minister
es to have the Tip-
ns planted.

OLD BEATING.

ld-time prospector of
, is able to describe
dead. He was dead
alf while having his
ys it was like coming right light. While etic, Arbow's heart
her in the middle of a minute and a half
restore life, Dr. A.
a, administered two
into Arbow's heart.
life.

days. He was aged about 49.

LADY'S CAR STONED.

Returning from Ceremony at Bealnablath

As a private motor, driven by a Kenmare lady, occupied by girls wearing blue blouses, was returning from Bealnablath, on Sunday, a brief stay was made at Kilgarvan village, about ten o'clock. Missiles were thrown at the car, the windows of which were broken, and inside the top of a bottle was subsequently found. Fortunately the parties were not injured, except one, who received facial scratches.

IRISH YACHT SUNK.

Woman And Seven Men Rescued.

One woman and seven men belonging to the Irish yacht Lafone, of Derry, have been rescued by the German steamer Scheer, according to a wireless message picked up at Rotterdam last night. The Lafone, a vessel of twenty tons, states the message, went down near Terschelling. The steamer Scheer has come from Hamburg.

LIMERICK NUN'S DEATH.

The death of Sister M. Conception McGrath, at the Presentation Convent, Hospital, Co. Limerick, has occasioned deep regret in the vicinity, where the deceased religieuse laboured. Of a kind and generous disposition, the late Sister M. Conception endeared herself to all, and her fervour and religious zeal made her an esteemed figure in her Community amongst her religious colleagues.

RECENT CORK SHOOTING.

The motion standing in the names of Senators Blythe, Wilson, and Miss Kathleen Brown with regard to the recent Cork shooting, has been revived, and will be discussed this week in the Senate. The motion was not discussed last Thursday because of the late hour at which it was reached.

Miss Sarah Ryan, Victoria Wales, and a native of Ra Tipperary, has died at the age left her native spot 80 years 20 years in America before Australia.

A lady of great talent, she her business life in the service magnate. Most of her £ goes to charitable and religious

HOLLYWOOD TRA

Hollywood, Sunday.—Mr
the film actor, dance band crooner, was admitted to
to-day, suffering from gunshot injuries are expected to prove

It is reported that he was home of Mr Lansing Brown photographer, and that he w wounded there by the disch fashioned pistol.

SERVANT GIRL COLLAR A WELL.

Annie Tighe, aged 20 y servant, employed by Mrs Jo garley, Co. Sligo, while draw water from a well, was overc attack, and toppling into drowned. A verdict of de carditis and asphyxiation by recorded at the inquest.

MOTOR TYRE M N

Senator John Keane has the following motion, which the order paper of the Sena
"That in the absence of offi the Seanad views with conce intention of the Governmen one firm the monopoly of motor tyres in Saorstad Eire

NEW SALVATION ARM

Going to Ame
General Eyangelina Booth on Saturday, returning for on March 10.