

on the completion of the new tuberculosis institution at the City Home Hospital is being pushed forward by contractors with commendable speed. The building will prove a distinct and valuable addition to the institutions controlled by the Health Board. In the past patients suffering from tuberculosis could not be properly isolated, with the result that they had to be sent to outside institutions at heavy expense to the ratepayers. The new hospital will obviate the need of sending patients away for treatment, and will be equipped with the most modern apparatus. The cost of the building has been provided out of Sweepstake funds. The Health Board has at present on hand a grant for the treatment of ophthalmic

LIMERICK CIRCUIT COURT.

This Day.

Justice McElligott, K.C., resumed the sittings of the Limerick Circuit Court at 11 o'clock this morning.

His Lordship was engaged in hearing for the first part applications to have money set apart of Court arising out of equity and account suits.

Those who appeared for the applicants were—Messrs W. Cox, G. C. Cullinan, O. Kelly, L. O'B. Kelly, M. Danaher, J. T. K. Liston, Barrister-at-Law. Solicitors engaged were—Messrs T. O'B. R. Fox, C. Ebrill, N. Gaffney, R. van, T. E. O'Donnell, and R. Cussen.

A BONFIRE INCIDENT.

While a number of young people—boys and girls—were seated round a May Eve bonfire in Athlunkard street last night their revels were suddenly disturbed by an explosion from within the fire. Large quantities of concrete were sent flying into the air in every direction, and several of the makers had narrow escapes from being injured.

When the fire was extinguished some time later it was ascertained that a considerable portion of the road surface, which is laid in concrete, was displaced, due to the intense heat of the fire.

NEW MEDICAL ASSESSOR

James Roberts who has been appointed Medical Assessor under the Workmen's Compensation Acts, in succession to Mr. W. Kennedy, occupied a seat on the
