sheries, and this fact should by the Government in making nue lost to the Fishery Conrder to provide adequate pro-Shannon and its tributaries. cided to ask the Government t for this purpose, and it is ne responsible Minister will n of doing so without delay.

ENT COMMENT.

ather.

ingering in the lap of May" orus very realistically yestera bitter north westerly wind ad at intervals was accomrenching showers of rain and emperature was as low as 43 in vhich state of things atmosas remarkable compared with arm sunshine that prevailed ago and led us to hope that ther had set in. The discarding he home was thus an all too , as the harsh weather of the The lays has demonstrated. till unsettled, and there seems e prospect of an improvement.

TS' DIVIDENDS.

fit of £2,574,544.

nts of Messrs J. and P. Coats showed a profit of £2,574,544. oviding for dividends already ectors recommend payment of a sepence per pound, less tax, on ock. They also decided to pay lividend of sixpence per pound for a further period of six months, and stating that the employment of Mr Costelloe was sanctioned only as a temporary arrangement. The Council was, therefore, requested to proceed to fill the vacancy in the ordinary manner.

Ald. Donnellan proposed that the Council take steps to promote one of the existing staff at the Park to the position, and that Mr Costelloe be appointed keeper.

Mr W. Hickey seconded.

M. Angley proposed an amendment that the Minister's directions be complied with.

Mr J. C. Hickey seconded.

On a vote teing taken, Ald. Donnellan's motion was passed by 15 votes to 2.

DEATH OF MR. J. R. HARTIGAN.

The death, which we regret to announce, took place at his residence, Boher House, Bruff, this morning of Mr James R. Hartigan, after a rather brief illness, patiently borne. The deceased, who never married, was in his sixtieth year. He was third son of the late Mr Thomas Hartigan, and brother of Mr J. P. Hartigan, the well-known Irish racing official and auctioneer, and of Mr T. A. Hartigan, Secretary, County Agricultural Committee. The deceased, who was a good judge of a thoroughbred, had horses in training some years ago, and was a familiar figure at Southern race meetings. He was a man of engaging manner, which endeared him to a wide circle of friends, who regret his passing and extend sympathy to his relatives.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The forthcoming municipal elections were discussed at a meeting of the Corporation last night. The members of the various parties exchanged views as to the desirability of avoiding a contest, and it was agreed that if possible the present thirty-seven members should be returned unopposed, and that the three vacancies existing should not be filled until the elections under the Reform Bill

Before lea cepted an ir lunch here of where they w

The Mayo he said, wer was men li possible.

The toast proceedings t

The airme
It was lea broadcast fro

PROTEC

Board'

Govern

At the me yesterday, I When it bailiffs be sufficiency McKibbin s greatest ponecessary to Mr A. M very gener country, b fisheries ou protection miserable s industry in The Board year owing Scheme, wh while the 9s. a week

On the n
by Mr Ma asking the enable the of the river

Mr Ford Minister on

TAR