MARRIED WOMEN'S PROPERTY ACT.

Scottish Lawyer's Death.

McConnachie, a prominent lawyer, and father of Baroness Minto in Glasgow yesterday, aged 75, was the legal emancipator of married women. He framed the Married Women's Property Act in 1920, which was taken up as a Government measure. Previously Scottish women were under their husbands control in regard to their own property.

SEIZED CATTLE.

at Fedamore.

The Registrar's Officer, Mr R. O'Brien, attended at Fedamore Pound yesterday for sale twenty four head of cattle from Mr Henry O'Brien, on account of non-payment of annuities, of which two-year-old cattle seized from Mr J. J. Keefe, Caherguillamore, for disturbance, and the stock was taken by the owners at £10 for the lot. A considerable number of cattle were present and the sale was without any disturbance, and the stock was taken by the owners at £10 for the lot for the two-year-old cattle.

TELEGRAPH WIRES

cutting in County Limerick.

The cutting of telegraph lines near Carrigrohane and Bruff, Thomas Michael Griffin, both of Rathkeale, were charged before Mr E. J. O'Brien, C., in connection with the cutting. They were remanded on bail.

improved on by a farthing by Capt Quish, they were knocked down to the latter, it is understood, in trust for the owner. There were no untoward incidents, and about 60 Civic Guards, under Chief Supt. Murphy, Limerick, were on duty. A small crowd of farmers were present.

SEQUEL TO WIRE CUTTING.

At a Special Court at Rathkeale, David Madden, Michael Malone, Francis Lynch, Jeremiah Mulcair, all of Rathkeale, who were charged with damaging 60 telegraph wires on the railway line near Rathkeale on Thursday, were, after refusing bail, remanded in custody for a week.

The cutting of wires delayed trains on the Limerick-Tralee line.

FATAL COLLAPSE.

Martin Nihill, labourer, aged 63 years, North Strand, collapsed on Matthew Bridge to-day, and was removed to Barrington's Hospital where it was found he was dead on admission. The deceased, who had a wife and four children, had been suffering from heart trouble for some time, and in the circumstances the Coroner did not consider an inquest necessary.
