J. Collins, solicitor, for the Comduced a birth certificate which that the man was 78 years of age policy was taken out.

Lulligan, the agent, denied that he that the man's age was 69 years.
Collins called attention to a recent of the High Court in reversing a of the Cork Circuit Judge where a statement of age had been made in policy.

S. McNeice, solicitor for the plain-closed their warrants for the year ended the 31st March last. The amount outstanding was £1,530, and £4,516 had been collected in respect of the current rate. Something should be done, as the rate books of these three collectors could not be issued until they closed their warrants. The Bank over-draft had been practically up to the limit, and stood at £98,970.

Two of the collectors who had not closed their warrants, Messrs. Blewitt and Fitzsimons, attended and said they would close on the 20th instant.

It was decided to extend the time in their case to the 20th inst.

Mr McNamara enquired the total of last year's rate.

The Secretary said £162,000.

Mr McNamara—How does it compare with the current rate?

The Secretary.—The current rate is £500 less. A sum of £2,659 was due to the Council in respect of roads grant, and £26,058 in respect of the agricultural grant.

It was decided on the motion of Mr Canty, seconded by Mr O'Donnell, to ask the Government to remit to the Council the money due in respect of roads improvement and of the agricultural grant.
