

I not go unheeded. The have been ever generous he call of charity, and which deserves the full ic. It has in the past actions of every class of d that being so there is prehend that the same ll not be forthcoming on t is the oldest of our ations, carefully managed, work which redounds to bscribers, and confers an ; to the destitute poor.

RE OUTBREAK.

s evening the Fire Brigade n outbreak of fire in the occupied by Mr J. Hamil- id, Thomondgate. When as discovered there was ouse, with the result that had to force an entrance, r a considerable time the e house, but the furniture ; were destroyed by the not known how the fire

TARY TRIBUNAL.

Thomas Mullaly, Feenagh, ett, Newcastle West, who shooting and wounding ;, farm labourer, Knocka- y on the night of the 1st en sent for trial to the l, Dublin.

OF COMMERCE.

of the Directors of the merce Mr A. E. Goodwin, mously elected President, llaghan was unanimously ident, for the ensuing year.

his Fascists would be ready to take over the Government of the country with machine guns when the moment arrived.

Defendants denied the words were de- famatory, or bore the meaning alleged. They also pleaded fair comment, and that the words were true in substance and fact.

Summing up, Lord Hewart said toleration of free speech only began when people listened decently and fairly to opinions with which they profoundly disagreed. He asked the jury if they believed plaintiff. Did he not appear as a public man of no mean courage and no little candour.

The jury found for plaintiff, awarding £5,000 damages. Stay refused.

GUN ACCIDENT IN COUNTY LIMERICK.

Farmer Fatally Injured While Fowling.

Mr John Hayes, aged about 32 years, a farmer, residing at Holycross, some miles from Bruff, met with a tragic death on Friday evening. It appears he was fowling, and when going over a paling the gun went off, the contents lodging in the region of the heart, with fatal result. He was brother in-law to Mr Robert Ryan, T.D.

At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was found.

Deep sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives and friends of the deceased, who was unmarried.

EDITOR'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr Alfred Orage, editor of the "New English Weekly," died at his Hampstead home only a few hours after giving a wireless talk last night on social credit.

Mr Orage was aged 61, and was of Irish

A. Fitzelle. La
"Thanks be to
was taken by Mrs
tralto voice supp
expressive interpr
special preacher w
of Armagh, who
helpful address b
The church was
with a congregat
various Protesta
city, and many c
present.

There was agai
night, when a fur
held. Rev. W.
Church, occupied
was the Rev. H.
spoke on the operation.

The anthem v
was contributed l

LIMERICK MU

Mr. Goodv

TO THE EDITOR OF

DEAR SIR,—I
that a rumour l
certain to be re
election owing t
solid block of fro
votes behind me.

As this is a ve
wish through the
inform my suppo
of Protestants on
tion is only 320,
not hope to obt
of their votes.

I never went f
representing any munity, and cer
votes of any or Under these circ
if all my friends
a false statement
might easily beli

64 and 65 Willie
5th November