Mr Mackey seconded the motion.
Mr C. Mitchell proposed as an amendment that they comply with the Minister's letter. If they did not accept his decision it would mean that the library scheme would be smashed.
Mr Power seconded the amendment.
Mr Hogan—We should not allow any member to over-ride the views of the elected representatives of the people.
On a division the amendment was defeated by 17 votes to 12.

DEATH OF MR A. J. SEXTON, SENIOR.

We announce with very sincere regret the death of Mr A. J. Sexton, senior, which occurred this morning at his residence, 68 O'Connell street. Mr Sexton, who was senior member of the firm of Messrs A. J.
Sexton & Son, Auctioneers, had not been in good health for some time past, but the news of his demise has come as a great shock to the citizens, amongst whom he was very popular and widely known by business connections. He was a man of a most kindly and courteous manner, and as a member of the Ratepayers' Society, and in other respects, took a keen interest in the welfare of his native city. He was father of Mr A. J.
Sexton, Auctioneer, and Mr J. J. Sexton, Solicitor. Deep sympathy is expressed with the deceased gentleman's widow and family in their hour of sorrow. Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.

PRESENTATION TO MR F. MUSPRATT.

An interesting function took place at the residence of Mr Frank Muspratt, F.R.C.O., Henry st., on 18th inst., when a deputation from the Cathedral Select Vestry met to present him with a silver salver and cheque on the behalf of the members of the Vestry, Cathedral congregation, and other friends.
The salver was inscribed with the date of Mr Muspratt's service—1885-1934.
The Dean in making the presentation
