

special mission of technicians organised by President Roosevelt, who believes that the United States have something to learn from this country. The Shannon Scheme, although not yet fully developed, is the biggest enterprise yet carried out in this country, and visitors from overseas will, it is safe to assume, continue for years to come to include it in their itinerary.

DEATH OF A NONEGENARIAN.

The death took place at Milford House to-day of Mrs Nora Mary Lee, at the ripe age of 90 years. The deceased was widow of Dr. J. H. Lee, who was apothecary at the City Dispensary and to the Mental Hospital. She was a lady of charming manner, and in early life took a prominent part in social work in the city. With her son, Dr. Malone Lee, London, sincere sympathy will be extended in his bereavement.

The remains will be removed to St. John's Cathedral this evening at 9 o'clock, and the funeral will take place to-morrow after Requiem Mass at 11 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence.

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT McCARTHY

Chief Superintendent McCarthy, who has been in charge of the Gardai in the city and county for the past year, has been transferred to Cork. During his rather brief term here this officer was very popular with all classes, and took a keen interest in athletics, in which his advice and enthusiasm will be missed. He was a great favourite with the members of the force, who regret his departure, while at the same time congratulating him on well merited promotion. Chief Supt. McCarthy is succeeded by Chief Supt. Murphy, Waterford.

THE THOLSEL.

Work on the demolition of the Tholsel, Mary street, has, by direction of the City Surveyor, Mr C. Stenson, been suspended pending the question of ownership of the old building being settled. At a recent meeting of the Corporation the Mayor promised to have a report from the Law Adviser on the matter, and until that is received the title remains to be determined. While everybody would like to see the structure pro-in spite of any opposition, which is regarded as unlikely.

FUNERAL OF MRS A. ROWE.

The funeral of the late Mrs A. Rowe, tobacconist, 5 O'Connell Avenue, took place on Sunday from St. Michael's Church to the family burial ground at Mount St. Lawrence cemetery. It was a striking tribute to the popularity of the deceased, and manifested the respect in which she was held, and the sympathy felt for the relatives in their bereavement.

The clergy present were—Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, C.C.; Rev. Dr Cowper, C.C.; Rev. Father Carroll, C.C., and Rev. Father Moriarty, C.C.

The chief mourners were—Mrs South (mother), Mr Robert Rowe (husband), Mrs Delia South and Mrs May South (sisters-in-law), Masters Jimmy, Billy, Tom and John South (nephews), Nancy South (niece), Mr and Mrs J. O'Donovan, Mr J. O'Donovan, senr., Mr E. O'Donovan and Mrs Noonan (relatives).

Mass Cards were sent from the following—Mrs Delia South and family, Mrs May South and family, Ethel and Madeline Kelly, Eily and Jim O'Donovan, Nora Moynahan and Kitty Tracey, Frank Corr and Sons.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, C.C., officiated at the grave.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK MULQUEEN

The death took place at his residence, Rosbrien, last night of Mr Patrick Mulqueen at a fairly advanced age. The deceased, who had been indisposed for sometime past, was an extensive farmer, and a Nationalist of the old school of politics. He was a member of the old Limerick No. 1 District Council and Board of Guardians, and took a practical interest in the affairs of these public bodies. His death will be learned with regret by a wide circle of friends, who will extend their sympathy to his relatives in their bereavement.

The remains will be removed this evening at 8 o'clock to Raheen Church, and the funeral to Killeedy at 2 p.m., summer time, to-morrow.

THE LATE SIR HENRY GREER.
