

brothers, Jack and Patrick Cowhey, from Lunkard-street, Limerick, visitors for the day, immediately dashed into the sea, and with the utmost difficulty they succeeded between them in reaching the exhausted girl and taking her to the strand. The incident was witnessed by large numbers, who paid tribute to the courage and promptitude with which the brothers Cowhey acted, had it not been for which the girl would most certainly have been drowned. It is understood that the girl was also a visitor from Limerick and was known to the young men. The rescuers spent the remainder of the day in a local hotel while their clothes were being dried, before they caught the train back to Limerick.

DEATH OF MR J. P. O'MAHONY, RATHKEALE.

Mr John P. O'Mahony, P.C., Rathkeale, who voted in the County Council elections for the Rathkeale area on Wed. collapsed in the street and was taken to his home where he died in a short time. The deceased, who was about 65 years of age, was proprietor of the firm of McDonnell and Co., seeds and hardware merchants. He was for upwards of twenty years a member of Limerick County Council, and unsuccessfully contested the Dail elections as a Treaty candidate in 1923. Mr O'Mahony was unmarried, and his death in such tragic circumstances is greatly regretted in Rathkeale and district.

The report of the Board I think, satisfactory. Examination show that being paid to the religious the young. I was present examination for the meeting was much impressed at answering of so many of generally by the importance a part of the religious. The Board is doing a great work, and deserves the aid and support of all Churches when it is possible, to transport of children to developed and extended has shown great good and the Representative taking a deep practical working. The Board long period of 28 vices of the Archdeacon Secretary, and everyone knows, too, that whatever he does it with all (hear). But not everyone how much work is entered of such an office. To day is such an efficient I say how helpful and to me since I came Archdeacon on whose ledge a Bishop can rely he can have, and I con in this respect. (Hear)

The returns of the show a slight decrease offertories compared with. The amounts contributed parishes are, considering very satisfactory. However, which do not missionary effort is an Christian faith, and to all to do their part in Kingdom upon earth next year's report a contributions to the every parish in the diocese. The portion of his dealing with Christianity another column.
