

Mr Forde—That is their intention.

Death of Mr M Guerin

Former Postmaster of Limerick

The death of Mr Michael Guerin, ex-Postmaster, G.P.O., Limerick, which occurred on Monday, will be deeply regretted by many friends in the Postal Service and in business circles.

A member of a well-known Limerick family, many members of which held office in the postal service, deceased began his career in that city, subsequently being transferred to Dublin on promotion. After some years in the Dublin Post Office he returned to Limerick as Postmaster, a position which he held until his retirement a few years ago.

During his period of office in Limerick Mr Guerin took an active part in the social life of the city, and was a very popular figure among all parties.

One of his brothers, Mr Jack Guerin, attained a high position in the postal service of New York.

would be just as easy and as honest for the