

Unexpected Sudden Death

Last evening Joseph O'Halloran, 42, porkbutcher, married, having six children, died unexpectedly at his residence, Mitchell street, John street district. He was a most popular citizen and well liked by his trade colleagues. Deepest sympathy is felt with his widow and orphans and relatives.
