
Death of Mr. Octavius Wallace

The death occurred at his residence, Palmerstown, Dublin, of Mr O Wallace, a member of the old Limerick family of jewellers, and a former High Sheriff of Limerick in 1863, He graduated at Trinity College, and although called to the Bar, never practised. He was connected with commercial enterprise in the city some years ago.
