

Ex-Garda's Body Found In Liffey

Well Known In Limerick

The body of a man identified as that of John J Rooney, 32, an unmarried ex-Guard, was picked up out of the Liffey in Dublin on Monday.

He is believed to have been the man seen struggling in the Liffey on St Patrick's Day. The river had been afterwards dragged for the body.

He joined the Garda Siochana about ten years ago, and he had been stationed at Limerick depot as Drill Instructor. He resigned about five years ago, went to Dublin with his father, mother, brothers and sisters, and was book-keeper at St Stephen's Green Loan Fund Society, Blessington street.
