

Death of Mr Wm. Gabbett

The deepest regret is felt in the city at the announcement of the death of Mr William Gabbett, which took place unexpectedly at his residence, "Ard-na-lia," O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, on Monday. Deceased was a popular and much esteemed citizen, and the greatest sympathy is extended to his sorrowing wife and young family in their poignant bereavement. Deceased was extensively known in agricultural circles through the counties of Limerick, Clare and the South and midlands, and enjoyed the esteem and good-will of all who were acquainted with his genial personality.

He was manager and general business conductor of the well-known auctioneer, Mr Wm B Fitt, and transacted the business of that firm up to last week, his keenness and thorough grasp of details being most comprehensive and far-reaching, securing him a thorough confidence of the large number of patrons concerned in agricultural circles.

He was beloved by all in social and private life—a sincere and honest man. He was a devoted member of the Archconfraternity, and was present at the annual Retreat for St Michael's division.
