

Ballineety Farmer's Death

Inquest at County Infirmary

Death from natural causes was the verdict returned at an inquest in the Co. Infirmary by Deputy Coroner J. McNoice, J.S.C., relative to the death of Denis Kenneely, Ballineety, farmer.

Death was due to inflammation of the brain consequent on pneumonic conditions.

The widow stated deceased had fallen in the piggery about six weeks ago.

Supt. Haydon, Newpallas, said that owing to the peculiar symptoms developed an inquest had been necessary.
