

Death of Mr R. H. Croker

At his residence at "Breatat," North Strand, Limerick, the death took place on Saturday last of Mr Robert Henry Croker. A devout Catholic, he was in his sixty-eighth year, and was familiarly known in the telegraph department of the General Post Office, Limerick, until his resignation three years ago in attaining the age limit. As superintendent of the telegraph office he won the esteem and good wishes of the general public and of the staff under his charge. He was father of the Rev M Croker, O.F.M., Athlone; Rev A Croker, Liverpool; Rev G Croker, Middlesboro, and of Mother Mary Macrine, F.M.M., Colombo, Ceylon.

Requiem Mass was celebrated at St Munchin's Church at 11 a.m. on Monday, after which the interment took place at Mt. St Lawrence, the funeral being extremely large and representative.
