

Death of Mrs J Gleeson

Deep and sincere regret is felt all over the city and county at the death, after a brief illness in St John's Hospital, Lime rick, of Mrs J Gleeson. Deceased was wife of Mr Jack Gleeson, the popular buyer at Messrs Cannock & Co, with whom the deepest condolence is felt in his sad bereavement. Deceased lady was daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Canty, Askeaton, in which town she had carried on a drapery and hardware business, and was much respected and esteemed by the people. The remains were transferred to the parochial church, Askeaton, on Monday evening by road, a large concourse accompanying the cortege. The funeral took place on Wednesday, after Requiem Mass, the burial being at the family grave at Ballymakeera.
