

The Late Mr. P. Hickey

Much regret is felt at the death which took place recently at his residence, Prospect Villas, Rosbrien, of Mr Patrick Hickey, who for a period of 40 years was a respected employe as carpenter in the firm of Messrs. James Barnatyne & Sons. Deceased, who was in his 72nd year, had been ailing but a brief period. He was a genuine Nationalist of the old school, a conversable historian, and a very devout Catholic, being a most attentive member of the Third Order of St Francis and of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family. The funeral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Friday evening, the 10th inst, was a tribute of respect to the memory of a good father, and a gentle, quiet and unassuming citizen, as well as a token of sincere sympathy with the bereaved widow and family.
