

Death of Mrs A Rowe

The death occurred, after a brief illness, at her residence, 5 O'Connell Avenue, on Saturday morning, of Mrs Anno Rowe, at a comparatively early age. The deceased was wife of Mr Robert Rowe, and carried on the business of tobacconist in the city for a number of years. She was youngest daughter of the late Mr Wm South, an employee of Messrs Henry Denny & Sons, and was a lady who made a wide circle of friends by her kindly disposition and gracious manner. Deceased was sister of the late Mr Wm. South and Mr John South, the Crescent.

The funeral took place on Sunday from St Michael's Church to the family burial ground at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, was a striking tribute to the memory of the deceased and manifested the respect in which she was held and the sympathy felt for the relatives in their bereavement.

The clergy present were:—Rev Father Fitzpatrick, c c; Rev Dr Cowper, c c; Rev Father Carroll, c o, and Rev Fr. Moriarty, c c.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs South (mother); Robert Rowe (husband), Delia South and May South (sisters-in-law), Jim, Billy, Tom and John South (nephews), Jas. O'Donovan, J O'Donovan, senr; E. O'Donovan, Mrs Noonan (relatives).

Mass cards were sent from the following—Mrs Delia South and family, Mrs May South and family, Ethel and Madeline Kelly, Eily and Jim O'Donovan, Nora Moynahan and Kitty Tracey, Frank Corr Sons.

Rev Father Fitzpatrick, s c, officiated at the graveside.
