

Death of Mrs. M. Naughton

The death took place at her residence, Lower Gerald Griffin street, on Thursday of Mrs Mary Naughton, at an advanced age. The deceased was wife of Mr Thomas Naughton, a former employe of the Harbour Commissioners, and mother of Mr William Naughton, clerical staff, "Limerick Leader." A kindly, generous-minded lady, she had the friendship of a large circle of friends and neighbours. Sympathy is tendered to her family in their bereavement. Funeral took place on Saturday from St. John's Cathedral.
