
Funerol of the Late Mr James O'Halloran

The funeral from St Mary's Parish Church on Saturday evening of the remains of the late Mr James O'Halloran, compositor, was a striking tribute to the memory of a straightforward type of trades-worker, and of an honest and conscientious man. It was representative of all classes—members of the Corporation, the Harbour Board, trade and labour bodies and the general public.

The chief mourners were :—Messrs Michl, James and Francis O'Halloran, sons; Mrs M Meehan, Mrs H Glynn and Mrs A McGuire, daughters; Messrs J Meehan, D Glynn, J McGuire and D O'Connor, sons-in-law; Mr M O'Halloran, nephew

The clergy present were—Very Rev Canon Hannon, P P, St Mary's; Rev Father Costelloe, O C, do; Rev Fr. McCarthy, O C, do. Very Rev Canon Hannon officiated at the graveside.

Wreaths and Mass cards were sent by numerous friends.

The interment was at Mt St Lawrence.
