

Death of a Sister of Mercy at Limerick.

The death of Sister Rita McNamara of the Sisters of Mercy, took place at St. Mary's Convent, Limerick, on Monday after a comparatively brief illness, aged 36 years, half of which period had been spent in religious life. She was a native of Glendree, Lower Feakle, County Clare. The interment will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) in the Convent burial ground after Office and Requiem Mass at 10.30 a.m.