

City Child's Death From Scalds.

The City Coroner (Mr J S McNeice) held an inquest at Barrington's Hospital on Saturday on the body of Teresa O'Gorman, 5 years, of 17 Francis street, who died from shock as the result of scalds received accidentally on Thursday. The mother stated the child stumbled over a pot of boiling water in the kitchen, and was severely burned in the back. Dr H D McGarry, temporary house surgeon, certified death. Verdict accordingly.
