

Death of Rev M Carroll, C C

The Rev Martin Carroll, O.C., died at St John's Hospital on Sunday, aged 63 years. He was son of the late Mr P Carroll, Master of the old Croom Union. Educated at Muugret and St Patrick's, Maynooth, he held a particularly brilliant course in theology.

Solemn Requiem Mass was held to-day at St John's Cathedral, over 40 priests being in the choir. Celebrant, Rev W J Carroll, O.C., St Michael's; deacon, Rev Fr Wilmott, Askeaton; sub deacon, Rev Fr Halpin, O.C., Parteen; master of ceremonies, Rev Fr Brassil, O.C., St John's.

Among the chief mourners were—Eugene Carroll, Croom, brother; Mrs McDonnell, Hill House, Kildorrery, sister; A McDonnell, v s, brother in law; Rev J Carroll, P.P., Ardpatrick; Rev P Carroll, P.P., Kileedy; Rev M Leahy, O.C., Dromia; Rev J Carroll, O.C., St Michael's, relatives.

The interment was at Mt. St Lawrence.