

---

Child's Death from Burns

---

Michael O'Neill, aged two years, died in the County Infirmary, Limerick, on Saturday as a result of burns accidentally received by falling into the kitchen fire in the house of his parents at Ballybricken, Grange, Co. Limerick.

At the inquest, the Coroner returned a verdict of toxemia and shock due to burns accidentally received.

---