
Death of Prominent Citizen

The demise of Mr R. Lynch, formerly superintendent of the sorting department G.P.O., Limerick, has occasioned deep grief throughout the city. He had retired on pension, about nine months ago. He was ever a well-known member of the Garryowen Football Club, a prominent player in his time, and had figured conspicuously in Cup and other matches.