

Sudden Death of Post Office Clerk

Thomas Flynn, 47 years, a clerk in the Postal Office, Limerick, was found dead in bed in Church street, city, this morning. Flynn was married, and was father of four children. His wife died about a month ago, and he had not been in good health since.
