

Death of Mr. Thomas Meade

The death of Mr Thomas Meade, 21 Davis street, at Barrington's Hospital, on Sunday last after a brief illness, came as a great shock to his numerous friends in the city. Deceased was Branch Secretary of the N.U.R. in Limerick, and in such a position had earned the highest opinions of his membership, and with all whom he had come in contact with. To add to the poignancy of the sad event, the late Mr Meade had only been married some six months, and sympathy goes out in unmeasured terms to his young widow in her bereavement. The funeral to Mount St Lawrence this afternoon was a striking manifestation in this respect with the widow and relatives, being of very large dimensions.
