LIMERICK NURSING ASSOCIATION.

An Appeal.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. DEAR SIR,—May I ask a small space in your columns to make an appeal to the generosity of the Limerick citizens in connection with the funds of the above?

For many years it has been possible for the Association to maintain a nurse who has worked under the direction of the doctors of the city in nursing the sick poor in their own homes.

Whilst the necessity for the nurse still remains (there being always much sickness in the city), the funds which enable us to retain her services are unfortunately diminishing rapidly. Many of our original subscribers have died, others have left the neighbourhood; our source of income from railway dividends has almost disappeared, and we find ourselves in the unhappy position of our expenditure exceeding our income. The Committee, therefore, knowing the urgent need for maintaining a nurse, are making a very special effort to collect funds before the general meeting in May, and they feel that in pointing out the position they may count on the hearty co-operation and practical help of their fellow citizens.

Subscriptions, however small, will be gratefully received and may be sent to the Hon. Treasurer—Mr J. P. Goodbody, 104 Henry Street, Limerick.

Signed on behalf of the Committee of Management,
M. L. O. BARRINGTON,
Hon. Secretary.

BARRINGTON'S HOSPITAL.

The paragraph which appeared in our last issue stating that Dr. M. J. Roberts had been appointed by the Management Committee to the position of surgeon in Barrington's Hospital, in room of Dr. T. W. Morris, stated to have resigned to take up practice in the city, is incorrect. The fact is that Dr. Roberts was elected as ear, nose, and throat specialist to the Hospital at the meeting of the Committee on the 12th instant.

solr.; Chief Superintendent Murphy, Superintendent Reynolds, J. Binchy, B.L.; D. Downing, B.L.; M. Danaher, B.L.; T. Pigot, B.L.; W. Cullen, senior, Newport; W. Cullen, junior do.

Mass cards were sent by a number of friends of the family.

Court Tributes.

Touching tributes to the late Mr O'Donnell were paid at the opening of the Limerick Circuit Court yesterday. His Lordship, Judge McElligott, said that for the long span of 39 years he had known the deceased gentleman professionally and socially, and each year his affection for him as a man, and his regard for him as a member of a most honourable profession, grew and increased. His ability and integrity were never questioned, and his delightful personality, his humour, and charity in deed and in word had endeared him to them all. "His memory," concluded the Judge, "will long be green amongst us, and he will not fade in our affections. Peace be with him."

Mr L. O'B. Kelly, B.L., on behalf of the Bar; Mr A. J. Blood-Smyth, solr., on behalf of the Solicitors' profession; Mr H. O'Brien, County Registrar, and Supt. Reynolds, feelingly endorsed the remarks of the Judge.

Mr J. M. Flood, in the District Court, also expressed his regret and sympathy, and was joined by Mr D. G. O'Donovan, solr., Mr J. J. Dundon, solr., Mr J. J. Sexton, solr., Hon. Sec. of the Limerick Bar Association, and Supt. Hayden, on behalf of the Garda Authorities.

BRITISH LEGION.

Limerick Branch.

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

Weekly Dairy Market.

Tuesday, February 12th.—A bigger entry and a better class, including some choice high-grade heifers. Favourable weather conditions helped, as heifers with feather and colour looked their best. A strong enquiry for promising lots; buyers quite willing to pay top current values. No hesitation in putting for heifers likely to prove good milkers; this applies not only to the top-top class, but to the general run of useful heifers. Proceedings opened with some small heifers, which did not attract active attention; but when the good heifers came on the "Ring" filled up, and trade took on a brisk and buoyant tone, and competition was keen to secure the really choice lots. Dairy proprietors wanting heifers with colour and quality had a number to select from, and for this class there is good demand. Purchasers were able to fill up their requirements. Backward or secondary heifers did not attract attention; poor heifers not wanted. Higher prices were placed by some vendors on their lots, which purchasers were not willing to give. Mr. M. Power obtained top price at the market for an exceptionally fine roan heifer, a real type of dairy cow. Representative attendance, including some from a distance. Bidding was sharp and keen, and realisation satisfactory. A bigger turn-over than last year. Choice heifers, £11 10s.—£13 10s.; promising, £9—£10 15s.; ordinary, £6 10s.—£8 15s. Cows, £9 10s.—£12 10s.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

MESSRS WM. B. FITT & CO.'S GRAZING LETTINGS.

On to-day at the Salesrooms, 46 O'Connell street, Limerick, the following lands were let for grazing—Ballymacrause, Ballyneety, for Mrs Shine, in five divisions, prices ranging from 40s to 52s; Court House, Kildimo, for Mrs Sheehy, in three divisions, prices from 20s to 40s; Greenmount, Patrickswell, for Mr F. H. Green, in four divisions: these lands not reaching the reserve were withdrawn, and are now for letting by private treaty; Shanaboola, Caherdavin, for Miss Byrne, was also withdrawn, and is for sale by private treaty. There was a good attendance, and for the lots set the prices were considered satisfactory, showing an increase of 5s to 12s per acre over that of last year.

Fat cows, £3 15s.—£4 5s. Two-year-old heifers and bullocks, £3 12s. 6d.—£5 10s. Sheep—Entry a repetition of last week, not as good as a mass. Full attendance of buyers, steady demand, well finished sheep met ready buyers, current rates ruled. Over the day's proceedings rates worked out the same as last week. A pea of choice hoggets made 54s. Fresh young ewes steady trade. Market practically sold up. Fat middle weight, 47/6 to 57/; small, 37/ to 45/; hoggets, 35/ to 54/; thorny wethers, 20/ to 25/6.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

DANCING EXHIBITION.

At the new ballroom of Athlunkard Boat Club on last Friday evening, Mr R. O. Donnelly and Miss D. McLeahy, well known local dancers, gave an excellent exhibition of modern ballroom dancing, which was highly appreciated by a large and appreciative audience of the Limerick dancing public. The exhibition was given as a preliminary to the first heat of the Fox Trot Competition, the adjudication of which by Mr Donnelly and partner was very well received by the very large number of entrants. The competition will be continued on next Friday night.
