

is £15, and is tenable at secondary school in the city five years.

ROAD DEATHS.

Best Record Yet.

Record for deaths in British was reached last week with 5. The injured, however, 35. The previous week's 10 dead, and 3,145 injured.

BY FOOTBALL.

Week-end Fixtures.

Final—Bohs v. Garryowen, Kick-off, 4 p.m.
Senior Cup—Garryowen II. v. Enagh, Sunday next. Kick-time).

Shannon v. Richmond. Thomond Park this afternoon. Extra time:— nil; Richmond, nil.

CIVIL PROSECUTION.

Question of Transfer.

at Killaloe District Court for his children from one school to another without giving written notice to the Public School Officer, Christopher O'Connell, aided ignorance of the law and for the benefit of the Probation Act. Justice Gleeson said that he was not aware of that provision. O'Connell was prosecuted.

QUINCY RACE CO.

Report of the directors of Limerick Race Co., Ltd., for the year ended last, shows that the profit for 1915 was £54 9s. 1d. This result is satisfactory by the directors, in view of the general depression which prevails. They congratulate their general manager, J. P. Hartigan, on the out-

Addressing the members of the Arch-Confraternity in the Redemptorist Church on Tuesday night, Rev. T. Browne, O.S.S.R., Spiritual Director, referred to the difficulties besetting the Church to-day. The Church, he said, would triumph over her enemies and persecutors now as she had done in the past. They had the Divine assurance "that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Ludendorf had now, said Fr. Browne, entered the fray against Christ and His Church, but the Church would be triumphant when Ludendorf was forgotten. Bismarck was a greater man than Ludendorf, but the Iron Chancellor had to make his submission in the end. The faithful need not be depressed at the attacks and onslaughts now being made on the Church, because the Church would emerge victorious and would continue to be victorious to the end.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

James Halvey, dock labourer, residing at Carey's Road, as reported in our last issue, sustained serious head injuries by falling into the hold of the steamer "Lanahone" at the docks. These subsequently proved fatal, and at the inquest, which was opened yesterday afternoon at Barrington's Hospital by the City Coroner, Mr. J. S. McNeice, the evidence showed that death was due to shock following a fracture of the skull.

The Coroner adjourned the inquest for the attendance of an Inspector of Factories, and sympathy was expressed with the relatives of the deceased by the Coroner and jury.

TO FISH IN IRELAND.

Mons. Henri Chardon, who is President of the French State Railways, and also President of the Conseil d'Etat, is sailing from Havre on the 18th instant to spend a ten days' fishing holiday in Ireland. He will be accompanied by his son, Maitre des Requêtes au Conseil d'Etat, and his daughter-in-law. Mons. Chardon is 75 years of age, but is remarkably vigorous and juvenile in appearance. He is a very keen salmon fisherman and is looking forward eagerly to his first visit to the salmon

THE HOSPITAL

Dr. Irwin stated demand for rates in relation amounting to £40 that a rate-aided ins from rates, and this v received such a deman The Committee refe the solicitor for his opi

THE LATE MRS. COPLIN LANGFORD

The late Mrs. Sopht who died recently at Kileosgriff, Co. Limerick, daughter of the late Mr. Massy, J.P., of Gur Wales, Australia, and by his wife, Chariot daughter of Doctor Bu M.D. who went to death of her father she to England by her u and Mrs Stewart, of London, S.W., and la Irish relatives, Mr Bruce Massy, of Gle and Major Hugh Ingc Massy, of Stoneville. At the former house Coplen Langford, from married on August 2 riage was a fatality Mrs Coplen-Langfor Alfonse Massy, was a Mr Coplen-Langford' Miss Geraldine Eliz Major Charles Crean Lancers, and Major, having a residence Australia, and was had a suitable home time she married the Langford.

Mrs Coplen-Langf Major William Ma Limerick, one of a and only one daught Blennerhassett, of Limerick. Mrs Cop cated in Sydney, wh tion in many ways. and adapted herself devoted to the welf