Supplementary Bull Sale.

This annual event was held on last Tuesday, June 4th, by Messrs. Wm. B. Fitt & Co. The entry showed an increase on the corresponding sale last year, and consisted of 87 two year olds and yearlings. Bulls of average class on offer, no really outstanding lots; enquiry was for useful animals, the run being, as is customary, on the yearlings, which had plenty of buyers and good demand. Prices did not touch the great annual sale. The sale was satisfactory; with a good clearance, in the yearling section. Top price in the two year old section went to Mr Wm.
 Donworth, Adare, at 9½ gns. average 4 to 9½ gns.
 Top price for yearlings went to Mr M. Power; Limerick, at 10½ gns., average 5½ to 10½ gns.
