MACDONALDSON LINER RE-FLOATED.

The Macdonaldson liner Letitia, which had been foundered at the entrance to Belfast Lough since Friday night, was re-floated today, and is proceeding direct to the dry dock.

The vessel had been lightened by the removal of cargo and came off before the high tide, by her own power, and assisted by divers.

All passengers were disembarked on Monday.

FUNERAL OF HON. EDWARD LASCELLES.

The funeral of Major the Hon. Edward Lascelles, Earl Harewood's brother, took place today at Harewood. The body was interred in the family vault at the old parish church of All Saints, within the grounds of Wood Park. Earl Harewood was the officiating minister.

The coffin was placed on the coffin from the processions Royal and Lord Harewood.

DEATH OF MR. W. J. GRIFFITHS.

The death, which we regret to record, took place at his residence, Hill View, Ennis Road, yesterday, of Mr. Wilton J. Griffiths, after a rather brief illness. The deceased, who was unmarried, was 60 years of age. He was fifth son of the late Mr. Louis Griffiths, draper, Patrick street, and was cashier at the offices of the Clyde Shipping Company, Dock Road, for the past thirty years. The deceased, who was a very capable and courteous official, was a prominent member of the Protestant Young Men's Association, and in early life took a leading part in the organizing of the gymnastic displays given by the Association. His death will evoke feelings of deep regret amongst a wide circle of friends, who will offer sincere sympathy to the members of his family in their bereavement.
