

iseau shopping.

AGEDY.

Victims.

Children had been
their faces pushed
at the inquest at er Tennant (39)
those bodies were
mes. The jury
lered the children
hile of unsound
two weeks before
e her.

ST ORDER DD.

ed to the priest-
st Order by the Rev. Dr. Dignan,
sker, last Sunday
cCarthy, C.S.S.R., ined is eldest son
nd the late Mr
'Connell Avenue.
years ago, at the
l had a brilliant

attended by his
cCarthy, Mrs M.
Coyle, Dublin,
her-in-law, Man-
nford, Co. Mayo, ousin, and other
nt at the celebra-Esker yesterday

F RATES DR.

asnevin, Dublin,
recommendation
ission, Inspector
County Council
M. J. O'Connell

WOMAN SHOT AT HER OWN DOORWAY.

Mrs Sophia McGahey, of Little Ship street, Belfast, was badly wounded in the hallway of her house on Monday night, when two shots were fired at her from a revolver, at point blank range.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock she was washing the hall of her house, when there was a knock at the door. On opening the door she was confronted by a man, who produced a revolver, and two shots were fired, the first of which splintered the woodwork in the hall, while the second pierced her shoulder. She was removed to the Mater Hospital.

LIMERICK LADY'S WILL.

Miss Augusta Caroline Graves, of Milestone Hotel, 1 Kensington Court, W., who died on August 4 last, aged 84 years, daughter of the late Right Rev. Charles Graves, Lord Bishop of Limerick, left estate of the gross value of £6,062 7s. 6d., with net personalty £5,972 16s. 3d. Probate of the will has been granted to her brother, Charles Larcom Graves, of The Athenæum Club, Pall Mall, S.W., and John Tiarks von Ranke Graves, of Erinta, Harlech, Merioneth, schoolmaster. The testatrix left property over which she had power of appointment under her father's will, and all other her estate to her brother, Charles Larcom Graves, and her nephew, John Tiarks von Ranke Graves, absolutely, desiring them to have regard to her wishes expressed in any memorandum she might leave, and which might be found among her papers, but she created no trust in the matter.

MOTOR LORRY CRASH.

Passengers Thrown Into Stream.

When the Killorglin contingent was proceeding home from the All-Ireland Drag Hunt at Ballineen on Sunday, the lorry conveying the party struck the parapet of Palace Ann Bridge, near Murragh, and precipitated a number of the passengers have been kept informed of ments when two such impo were under consideration. I for the fact that options had the sites, other concerns wou for them. There were a nu cations for the sites. That dallying could not be allowe

The position was that neither yet been formed, and the opti would terminate at the end It was time that the Board we definite information on the m
The Secretary stated that h a letter dated 29th July to t the issuing of the prospectus and nail factory had been hel the death of Sir Lingard C would shortly be issued.

The Mayor—That is almos ago. We will inform these pe option expires at the end of
and in the case of the ceme can do nothing until Novembe continue extending options i of definite assurances.

TRADE OF PORT.

The Secretary stated that si ing six coasters and two regul entered the port.

DOCK SCHEME.

Ald. McInerney asked if was satisfied with the progres in the dock scheme.

The Engineer said he was c that the progress at the mon be more rapid. The work at done was very delicate.

Ald. McInerney—Were you the progress up to this?

Engineer—No.

Ald. McInerney said that h dissatisfied with the progress and he wished for a detailed scheme, and the amount of m been paid to the contractors.

Engineer—I will have tha at the next meeting.

A KERRY RESCU

Awards by Lifeboat II