

were representatives of London, and the Greek minister, and the French sadors, and Sir Samuel happy, and smiled as he sees He was accom- or, Prince Paul, and his y accepted a small posey a a young Greek girl of before leaving the King sh people for their hos- exile. It was his earnest eric ties which bound would continue strong ing To-day.

General Election

eneral Election is taking ine weather, the booths n and many industrial ock, and an hour later in ty-one million electors, ring men by one and u.

bers will be returned to and provincial boroughs f 330 seats, including row, and most of the eclared to-morrow.

ister and Mrs Baldwin bbeys division of West- n Hall, at 10.30.

ernment organ stated at e Government majority than predicted, as the likely to be theirs.

the National Hospitals Trustees is £4,382,322. This will be disbursed from time to time as reports are received from the Hospitals' Commission.

DEATH OF MRS M. HOGAN.

We announce with regret the death of Mrs Mary Hogan, which took place at her residence, Thomond Hotel, Catherine street, Limerick, early yesterday morning after a serious illness of some weeks duration. The deceased was a lady of great charm of manner, kindly, sociable, and good hearted, traits that won her a wide measure of respect and popularity. Her demise has been learned with deep sorrow in the city by numerous friends and acquaintances, who extend sincere sympathy to her husband, Mr John Hogan, and her family and relatives in their bereavement.

The funeral took place to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery from St. Michael's Church after Office and Requiem High Mass at 10.30 o'clock this morning. It was of very large proportions, and testified to the popularity enjoyed by the deceased and the sorrow felt for her husband and family in their loss.

The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Fr. Moriarty, C.C., St. Michael's. The deacon was Rev. Dr Cowper, C.C., do, and sub-deacon, Rev. Fr. Carroll, C.C. Rev. Fr. Fitzpatrick was master of ceremonies, and the clergy in the choir were Rev. Fr. Harty, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Fr. Kelly, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Dermot, O.F.M., and Rev. Fr. Breanan, O.S.A.

The chief mourners were—Mr J. Hogan (husband), Mrs Spence and Mrs Ryan (daughters), Messrs Sean and Joseph Spence (grandsons), Misses Lilly and Mary Spence (grand-daughters), Mrs Keogh, Sixmile-bridge (sister), Mr James Keogh (nephew), Misses Hanna and Annie Keogh (nieces), Messrs George Spence and Joseph Ryan (sons-in law).

Wreaths were laid on the grave from—"Her loving husband," "George and Annie," "Joseph and Mary," the Bookmakers' Association, and from the grand children.

A large number of Mass-cards were also sent.

the patients. Dr Irwin said that the explained by Ald. Reid need for calling the Sub- Ald. McInerney—But matters apart from the to be considered.

Mr Hickey—The Sub investigate a complaint n R.M. S. regarding an atte

Dr Irwin said the As present absent on leave better to defer the com attendant until Dr Molon

This course was agreed Ald. Reidy considered tive measure all the pa should be inoculated. well spent.

The Clerk said the cc 630 patients was $16 10

Dr Irwin did not thi inoculate the male pati were affected by the ou fever was not peculiar to Hospital.

Mr Bourke—How ma Dr Irwin—Four died, affected altogether.

Ald. Reidy asked if caused by the presence o

Dr Irwin replied in milk and water supply negative results, an t the patients suspected o He would, as suggested patients inoculated.

The Chairman said it say that the authoritie ho-pital had done ever the patients.

Dr Irwin—Dr Hump at the ci y fever hospital very skilfully. The l mental hospital was no was little sickness in t the outbreak of typhoid disappeared.

The matter then ends

BUILDING TR

Mr P. J. Sheehan, d reviewed the position dispute between the ca tractor relative to the window frames in the