FUNERAL OF MRS G. M. JORDAN.

The remains of the late Mrs G. M. Jordan were interred in St. John's cemetery on Thursday morning. Overnight the coffin, covered with many beautiful floral tributes, rested in the church, whither it was removed the previous evening.

Before the remains were borne to the last resting place a short service was conducted by the Archdeacon of Limerick and Rev Canon Abbott, B.D. The congregation was large, and representative of the professional and business community, as well as many personal friends and acquaintances, and bore eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased lady, and the sympathy felt for her husband and family.

The Archdeacon, assisted by Canon Abbott, officiated at the graveside.

Other clergy present were:—Very Rev. Dean Swain, and Rev. W. J. Hall.

The chief mourners were:—Mr A. Jordan (husband); Mrs Lawlor (daughter); Rev. Mr Lawlor (son-in-law); Miss A. Jordan (sister-in-law); Messrs W. Walsh, G. Walsh, O. Haselbeck, G. Ruttle, J. Ruttle, D. Walsh and M. Walshe (nephews); Mrs W. Walshe, Miss H. Walshe, Mrs Haselbeck, Miss S. Haselbeck, Mrs G. Ruttle, Miss M. Ruttle, Mr R. Walshe, Miss B. Walshe, and Mrs L. Watts (nieces); Mrs T. Myles, Mr F. Legear, Mr and Mrs Holly-wood, and Mr and Mrs W. Holliday (relatives)

The following sent wreaths—Elsi., Elliott, and Arthur; Otto, Ruth, and Sheila; George and Lonie; All at Mill House; Addie and Children; Violet; "Bobeen," London; Cora and Billy; Mrs Auchmuty and Family, Mr and Mrs Farmer, Mr and Mrs F.
