

notice that they would collect 25 per cent. of their a three weeks, otherwise d be taken from them, and some were consistently bad suspended The Council measures possible to bring e situation to the notice of and where collectors were Council should exercise to the powers which the law said there had been a con- vement in the collection on was passed on the 2nd ncumbent on the collectors e considered it disgraceful he collectors had not yet cent. of the first moiety of

by a majority vote, ac- e views contained in the

IOUS COMEDY.

described as the vogue of ,” that delightful comedy ish flavour and infectious he attention of a packed Catholic Institute Hall last presented by the Institute alf of the St. Vincent de ad the dependents of the ranmore drowning disaster, mendable charities. The caste who have imbibed the or, gave, as was to be ex- and convincing study of situations were lucidly and , while the dialogue was rity. The fact is that the al interpretation enhanced f the performers, who gave only in a good cause but in a set of characters typical will be repeated to-night at ould again receive a large ort.

TE AIR SERVICE.

THE ARTISTS INCLUDED—MR PAUL BERNARD (violin), Mr George Walsh (basso), Mrs J. Griffin (soprano), Mrs P. McCarthy (alto), Mr J. O'Donovan (baritone), Miss McGowan (soprano), Miss P. Kennedy (soprano), Mr J. Allen (baritone), Miss K. O'Connor (con- tralto), Mr R. O'Connor (tenor), Mr T. Spencer (tenor), Miss M. Nunan (soprano), Messrs A Hogan, W. Brazier, P. O'Donoghue, and the Leger School of Dancing.

Miss Nancie Blackall (piano) was a very sympathetic choral accompanist, as was also Miss Paula O'Donnell (organ). Mr Paul Bernard played the violin accompaniment to some of the items in an admirable manner.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M. F. McCUTCHEON.

The funeral of the late Mrs Margaret Francis McCutcheon took place from her residence, 24, Catherine street, on Wednes- day last, to St. Mary's Cathedral. The at- tendance was large, and testified to the respect held for the deceased by so many friends. The officiating clergyman was the Ven. Archdeacon Waller, B.D., and the relatives present included—Messrs John McCutcheon (husband), J. McDonnell (uncle), Walter McCutcheon, J. E. Galbraith, Peter Galbraith, E. K. Irish.

The general public included—The Dean of Limerick; Rev. Treasurer Abbott, B.D.; Rev. W. J. Hall, B.A.; Messrs. J. Stewart, J. Brockett, J. Cunningham, W. Hobbs, J. Hall, G. Lawlor, J. Egleston, M. Hayes, E. Stack, W. Coburn, A. Moorhead, W. Cavanagh, R. Mulligan, T. Brockett, E. Hartigan, J. Greene, J. Mooney, A. Jones, D Liddy, etc.

Wreaths were sent by—“ Her affectionate husband and family,” “ Auntie Clara,” “ Ssrah,” “ Lizzie and Joe,” “ Uncle Walter and Aunt Annie,” “ Ted and May,” Arch- deacon and Mrs Waller, Mrs Duffy, Mrs Ashleigh, Mrs White, Mrs Jones, Mrs Coburn, Miss Creaney, etc.

SEWERAGE SCHEMES.

The City Manager, at the meeting of the and I have received any other licensed Limerick. I will of fine of 5s on the mar If he comes be this charge I will fi impose a fine of £ endorse the licence.

Mr McNeice said selling her premises stances he wished leniency.

The Justice said l the plea of Mr McN what he knew abou premises.

RIOT PE

John Earls, Water breaking the windo Goodwin, William s July 21st last, du rioting in the city.

Inspector Brazzil was more than £20, case outside the juri He understood, he fendant was prepar course the authori reduce the damage to need not go the Circ

Mr M. Tynan, stated that his client guilty to all charges.

Justice—Can you as to character?

Mr Tynan—He a decent young fellow, with the excitement going down Willia crowd throwing premises and he ther

The Justice said attitude adopted by impose a suspensio months imprisonme time since this riotin by all decent citizens he thought that in good name of Limeri be forgotten.

IRISH WIR.

The prospectus at