Death of Mr. Timothy Quane.

The death took place on the 25th inst. at Barrington's Hospital, after a brief illness of Mr Timothy Quane, Carey's Road, Limerick, to the inexpressible grief of his widow, family and relatives. Deceased was a well-known and popular citizen and was held in the greatest respect by a wide circle all through Limerick district.

He laboured before his retirement from business for 24 years in the service of Messrs Guinness and Co., his employers holding the highest opinion of his integrity and capability. He was a man of quiet, retiring dispositions, to know whom was ever a cherished feeling amongst his commercial acquaintances and immediate circle of intimate friends.

The funeral took place from St Michael's Parish Church on Saturday, 26th January, to the usual St Lawrence Cemetery.

The clergy officiating were—Rev Father Murphy, A.M., Rev Father Fitzpatrick & C. Officiating—Mrs Alice Quane (widow), Miss Nan Quane (daughter); Miss Mary Quane, Miss James and William Quane (daughters), Mrs John and Mrs Michael Quane (daughters-in-law); Mrs McDonnell, Mrs J O'Dwyer, Mrs M Heston, and Mrs P Bourke (sisters); Stephen, John and Dominick Kennedy, Peter, Con, Joseph and John Kelly and John Hogan (nephews), Miss A Hannah, Patrick and Joseph Hannan, and Mr J Linnah (relatives).

Amongst the general public were representatives from Messrs A Guinness, Sons & Co., Ltd., the Grand Canal Co.; Shannon Navigation Department; Young Munster Forestry Co. and St Mary's Band; Mr Turpin and Mr O'Dwyer of Messrs A Guinness Sons & Co; Mr Johnson, of the Grand Canal Company; Mr T McNamara, A.M. J Kelly, T.D., A.M. D. Bourke, & D.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The widow and family of the late Timothy Quane beg to express their sincere thanks to all who sent letters and messages of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement; to all who so kindly sent Mass Cards; and also the members of St Mary's Band for their nice wreath. Trusting this acknowledgment will suffice, as it is impossible to reply individually.
