

Popular Figure

Limerick Man Dies in Tipperary

The death occurred in his 74th year, at his residence, Beechmount, Tipperary, on Sunday, of Mr Joseph W O'Shea, who had been for many years extensively engaged as a butter buyer in the South. A native of Limerick, he had been over fifty years resident in Tipperary, where for a considerable period he was a J.P. His genial manner made him extremely popular.

Railway Theft

estate and
both abo
districts
mitage

CO

App

Mr B
pointed
of Educa tion. M
as a gov
promote
breadth

INGADE