Co. Limerick Woman's Death.

The death of Mrs Mary Bridgeman, wife of Mr Jack Bridgeman, Clapham, after a short illness, removes a very popular figure in Irish circles in South London. Mrs Bridgeman, who, like her husband, was a native of Co Limerick, took an active part during her thirty years' residence in Clapham in the Irish-Ireland movement. She was a well-known member of the congregation of St Bede's Church, Clapham Park, and was prominent in social work in St Bede's and St. Mary's parishes. She leaves two children, a boy and a girl.
