

City Child Killed

Fatality at Clare Street

James Callenan, aged 6 years, while crossing the road at Clare street on Thursday was knocked down by a motor lorry.

He received serious injuries, was removed to Barrington's Hospital, where life was found to be extinct.

An inquest was held on Friday by Deputy Coroner McNeise, solr.

Turf Industry Plans
