

Cork Minors won by 7-6 to 1-3 against Waterford for the minor championship.

Death of Mr John Clancy

The death took place on the 27th July of Mr John Clancy, of Sexton street, Limerick. He was a member of the Drapers' Association, and was highly respected by his colleagues. He had been employed in the conduct of the Limerick Industrial Drapery Store in William street, and later at Messrs Crowley's in the same locality. The funeral took place on 30th inst. to Mt. St. Lawrence Cemetery. American and Australian papers please copy.

3rd of
and the serve a written
and lat
and th
Soggar
miracu
written
to the
that s
Ire-land
means alive th
was at Marcus
boys; it
Patha
cuse th
less