

Limerick Tragedy

Electrical Engineer's Fatal Injuries

Native of West Cork

Reginald P Marmion, a native of Skibbereen, who was gravely injured whilst employed at the Shannon Works, Ardara-crusha, on Wednesday, died in Barrington's Hospital.

The deceased was an electrical engineer and was crushed by a fall of machinery, his left shoulder being shattered and his head injured.

An inquest was opened and adjourned at Barrington's Hospital on deceased.

The medical evidence showed that death was due to shock and haemorrhage following extensive body and head injuries.