Limerick Tragedy.

Man Killed in Motor Collision Near Lisnagry.

A sad fatal accident occurred near Lisnagry, some four miles from Limerick, about seven o'clock on Saturday evening resulting in the death of Thomas Quin, of the locality. It appears Quin was on his way home seated on a common car, when a motor car driven by Major Webb, Knocktoran, Knocklong, collided with the dray, the unfortunate man receiving the injuries which caused his death. The Limerick Fire Brigade was promptly on the scene, and had the injured man removed to Quilty's publichouse nearby, where it was found he was beyond medical aid.
