

Death of Mrs. James McGuire.

THE INTERMENT.

A feeling of widespread and inexpressible regret was occasioned over the city and district on Tuesday when the death was announced at Ballybunion of Mrs Margaret Alyce McGuire, wife of Mr James McGuire, Elm Lodge, corn merchant, of Limerick. The deceased lady had been in failing health for some time back, and her decease was not altogether unexpected. Of a kindly and very charitable disposition she enjoyed every good wish of a very large circle of friends, to whom her loving, considerate manner in life endeared her. The greatest sympathy is felt with Mr McGuire, family and relatives in their sad bereavement.

The remains arrived in Limerick by road on Tuesday evening from Ballybunion, and were met some miles outside the city by leading citizens, who formed a most representative funeral cortege to St Munchin's Parish Church, where the remains lay overnight.

Very Rev Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.G., St Munchin's, was celebrant of the Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning in the presence of a large congregation. The other clergymen in attendance were—Rev Father McCarthy, C.C., St Munchin's; Rev Dr Cowper, C.C., St Michael's; Rev Father McWilliam, S.J.; Rev Fr O'Keilly, S.J.; Rev Fr Baptist, O.R.M.

The interment took place on Thursday at the family burial vault, Mt. St Lawrence Cemetery.

The chief mourners were:—Mr James McGuire (husband), Mr and Mrs Hanrahan (parents) Mrs Goodwin and Misses Norrie and Agnes Hanrahan (sisters), Mr M Hanrahan (brother), Messrs Martin, Patrick and James McGuire, Gerald Windle, Jerry Barry and C R Keyes (nephews), Mrs W McGuire, Misses Kathleen and J McGuire (nieces), Mrs Bailton, Miss McGuire and Mrs Windle (sisters-in-law), Mr T Goodwin (brother-in-law), etc.

The funeral cortege was of imposing dimensions, and was attended by the Mayor, Ald. Keedy, T.D.; Ald. D Bourke, T.D.; members of the Corporation; of the commercial and professional circles in the city, and by a host of general mourners from Limerick and district.

Very Rev Canon O'Dwyer officiated at the graveside.

There were no flowers by request, but numerous Mass Cards were sent by friends.
