Civic Guard's Death

Limerick Man's Funeral

The funeral of Mr George Stapleton, of the Garda Siochana, which took place from St Michael's church, Limerick, to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, was of very large dimensions. The deceased, who was a native of Limerick, was attached to the Gardo since 1922, and had held the rank of sergeant. For a considerable time he was connected with the Depot, and was held in very high esteem. At the funeral a guard of honour under Sergeant Kirwan was provided.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Stapleton (mother); J and M Stapleton (brothers); James and P Galvin (uncles); Mrs Lebane (aunt); James and Joe Fitzgerald, James Fitzgerald, Junr., Mrs Madden, Mrs Fitzgerald and Mrs Plunkett (cousins)

Rev Fr Harty, Adm., St Michael's, and Rev Father Fitzpatrick, O.C., officiated at the graveside.
