

Citizen's Death

An esteemed and highly respected citizen, Mr Martin Bourke, Broad street, Limerick, died rather suddenly on Wednesday morning. Shortly after seven o'clock he complained of pains in the region of the heart and by 10 o'clock death had supervened. The deceased was an ex postal official, and deep sympathy is tendered to the family in their bereavement.
