

be regarded with complete 1. The municipal machine is nootly and efficiently, as in the fact that there is almost a £3,000 to the credit of the
1. That is unique in the he Borough Exchequer and tributed to good management, ith the desire on the part of yers to meet their liabilities. y when the finances are ed out and set on a firm a there be any relief from the igh rate of 25s. 9d. in the Manager has promised that rmaal impost will be reduced ow that he will in time fulfil e. But he must, in the task f him, continue to receive the on of the citizens; otherwise will remain at a figure which difficult for many people to pay. io reason why the services in should cost more than in nd Cork, and it may be hoped e many years have elapsed the ll be below 20s. in the £.

BOAT INSTITUTION.

Annual Flower and Country Pro-in aid of the Lifeboat Institube held on Wednesday next at ry Street Auction Mart (kindly he occasion by E. L. Wickham, d on Saturday, 19th inst., the Flag Day for this deserving n will be held in the city.
duble work being performed Lifeboat Institution cannot be ated As a result of the rs of thousands of voluntary arena.

Father Wall always took a deep inter-rest in local affairs. He was Chairman of the Diocesan Council, Catholic Boy Scouts, and had been a member of the Committee of the Catholic Institute. His interest in theatricals was a source of great encouragement to local amateurs, and he was a strong supporter of the Little Theatre movement in the city.

LIMERICK NUN'S DEATH.

The death took place at the Convent of the Faithful Companions of Jesus, Laurel Hill, Limerick, last evening, of Sister Maria Moloney. The deceased nun was 80 years of age, and had been a member of the community in Limerick for 62 years. She was a native of Limerick City, and her brother, the Rev. Brother Colomba, C.S.S.R., is attached to the Redemptorist Church, Mount St. Alphonsus, Limerick.

The funeral of the deceased will take place to-morrow at 3 p.m. in the Convent grounds.

DEATH OF MISS EVA MacNEICE.

Sincere sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacNeice in their bereavement suffered through the death of their daughter, Miss Eva MacNeice, at her residence, Weston House, Limerick, yesterday. She was the youngest daughter of a family well known in the city, and her death at an early age has evoked the deepest sympathy for her bereaved parents, brothers, and sisters.

The late Miss MacNeice had been a student in a Roscrea Convent prior to her illness and was a general favourite among her many friends and acquaintances.

Her father, Mr. Arthur MacNeice, is Secretary to Messrs. O'Mara, Ltd., Limerick.

The remains will be removed to St.
Michael's Church to-night at 8 o'clock, and the funeral will take place at 1.30 to-morrow (Sunday) to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.