NEW LIMERICK POST-MASTER.

Thomas A. Daly, Postmaster, has been appointed Postmaster at Limerick in succession to Mr J. Normile, who has been transferred to Cork some time ago. Prior to his appointment to Ennis, eighteen months ago, Mr Daly held the position of Superintendent at Limerick for some years, and in that capacity he has shown great ability and an understanding of the duties of a postal official. Courteous and affable to the public and staff, Mr Daly's well-deserved promotion will be learned with pleasure in the city, where he is very popular.

LIMERICK FLOUR MILLS.

The defendant was bound over in £50 and two sureties of £25 each or in default two months in gaol.

FUNERAL OF MRS HALPIN.

The funeral of the late Mrs Jane Halpin, Crescent Villas, took place yesterday from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. Mrs Halpin, who was a member of a highly esteemed Limerick family, had been residing for some time back with her son, Edward, at Youghal, where her death took place. A partner in the firm of E. M. Halpin & Co., Upper William St., Limerick, she was widow of the late Mr E. M. Halpin, who died many years ago. She was aunt of Rev. J. Treacy, C.S.S.R., the present distinguished Spiritual Director of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family.

Requiem Mass was offered up at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the funeral took place immediately afterwards, the cortege showing by its huge size and representative character the respect and popularity enjoyed by the deceased and her family and relatives.

The chief mourners were—Edward G. Halpin and Joseph A. Halpin (sons); Mrs D. O'Callaghan, Mrs G. Cantwell, and Mrs F. Cantwell (daughters); Miss Lizzie Delanige (sister); Mrs E. G. Halpin and Mrs J. A. Halpin (daughters-in-law); J. P. B. Halpin, Edward Halpin, the Rev. J. Treacy, C.S.S.R., and Alphonsus Treacy (nephews); D. O'Callaghan, G. Cantwell, and F. Cantwell (sons-in-law); Mrs J. J. Halpin (sister-in-law), Mrs Stephen McCarthy, Miss McCarthy, Joseph McCarthy, and Leo Cantwell relatives.

The clergy present were—Rev Fr. Harty, Adm.; Rev Fr. Fitzpatrick, C.C.; Rev Fr. Carroll, C.C.; Rev Dr Cowper, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Moriarty, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Lynch, C.S.S.R.; Rev. Fr. O'Reilly, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Neary, S.J.
