

was filled with water, near Rosnetstown, near Kilfinane, tied upside down, but Mr. [Name] escaped with a shaking wetting.

and concentrate on the original project of connecting at Rosbrien. Although it would cost more it would be the more advantageous, and avoid the haulage of merchandise through the heart of the city.

to them on con one year's premit before 1st Jan premiums are bei 1936, will come u bonus additions death or maturity between 13th M March, 1937.

her! Are in doubt?

you want to be very careful give him while he's poorly. I wish all mothers were to ask for advice!

child is ill there is nothing to worry about. 'California Syrup of Figs' for children acts gently on the bowels gently without upsets. It takes away the nervous waste matter naturally. 'California Syrup of Figs' is a safe, natural laxative. While Bobby is ill, keep his bowels regular with 'California Syrup of Figs.'

When Bobby is well again, take my tip, and let him have a regular dose of 'California Syrup of Figs.' It is not a strong purgative, however disguised. I've known so many people make this mistake. 'California Syrup of Figs' is safe. Doctors always recommend it and give it to their own children.

'California Syrup of Figs' is a particularly good laxative for grown-ups. I always recommend it to my patients, young or old.

Dr. [Name] sells it in two sizes, 1/3 and 1/2. Always advise the larger size—

DEATH OF MR J. O'DONOVAN.

We announce with regret the death of Mr Joseph O'Donovan, pig dealer, Athlunkard Street, which took place Wednesday morning in St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, after an operation. The deceased was one of the most popular citizens of Limerick, and deservedly so, for he was the possessor of several good qualities calculated to win confidence, respect and esteem. He was of an exceedingly kind, charitable and sociable disposition and had hosts of friends everywhere he went. In his business capacity he was held in the highest regard, and the news of his demise at a comparatively early age, and after only a brief illness, will cause the most widespread sorrow.

The remains arrived in the city by road at 9 o'clock last night, and were conveyed to St. Mary's Church.

The funeral, which was of very large proportions, took place Thurs. for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.

The chief mourners were—Mrs J O'Donovan (widow), Patrick, Thomas, and Joseph (sons), Kitty, Nan, and Lily (daughters), Mrs M. Spring, Newcastle West (sister).

At the meeting of Limerick Mental Hospital Committee, Ald. J. Reidy, T.D., proposed a vote of sympathy with the family. Mr O'Donovan was, Ald. Reidy said, a gentleman who was well known throughout the province.

The vote was seconded unanimously and passed in silence.

MURROE COURT.

Mr. J. M. Flood, B.L., District Justice

CITY TRESORER

The Department has sanctioned the resignation of Mr. J. Morrissey, after with the Corporation in the position of Treasurer for fourteen years, and an assistant to three—Mr M Woulfe, O'Toole. Mr M was a capable and courteous colleague and for many years to a pension, which he received per annum.

When you take Buckfast Elixir this is speedily out of your system. It is an ideal condition for fast Al