

LATE MRS. J. FEEHAN.

Esteemed Figure.

The death took place at the City Hospital on Easter Sunday of Mrs Nora Feehan, wife of Mr John Feehan, Newenhams street, Limerick, after a prolonged illness. The deceased lady was youngest daughter of the late William Brennan Mullins, Mount Gordon, Meelick, and belonged to an old Nationalist family. She enjoyed a popularity and respect accorded to few, and the funeral, which took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery yesterday afternoon, was a fitting tribute of the esteem in which she was held by all classes.

The remains rested in St. Michael's Church overnight, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Dermot O.F.M., yesterday morning.

The chief mourners were—Mr John Feehan, husband; William, John and Patrick Feehan, sons; Patrick Mullins, brother; the Misses Ciss Hanley, Sarah, Bridie and Maureen Mullins, and Mrs O'Regan, nieces; Messrs Patrick, Michael, James and Thomas Hanley, Patrick and John Mullins, nephews; Mrs K. Hanley, sister-in-law; Mrs John Feehan, daughter-in-law; John O'Regan and John Bindon, relatives.

The clergy present were—Rev. W. P. Harty, Adm, St. Michael's; Rev. M Fitzpatrick, C.O., do.

Numerous tributes in the form of Mass cards were placed on the grave.

Rev. Fr. Harty officiated.

TIMBER TRADE DISPUTE.

Enquiry made to day elicited that there was no change in the dispute in the

THE MUNICIPAL

The Corporation will meet to-day evening to give further consideration to the rate estimate for 1937. On the 31st March, 1937, sitting the estimate was agreed to, but there may be some calling for attention and a bear reduction. The Corporation estimated for a gross revenue of £160,000, and for £10,000 to be devised from the rates.

This is equivalent to an impost of 25 4/9 in excess of the 1935

While it is a high figure, it is not a normal year it is hoped the citizens will give considerable relief, and there will not be a recurrence of expenditure in any of the

TEAM CONGRAT

Limerick G

At a meeting of the Limerick Board on Saturday, a resolution was passed congratulating the county team for their success in the National League for hurling in succession—a feat which is unequalled. The Committee wishes for the team's success on their American tour, and expects that they will return with a good display in the 1937 hurling final.

The Chairman expressed his pleasure at the receipt of this letter from the team, and took the opportunity to congratulate the team on winning the National Hurling League and in their proper sportsmanlike spirit.

RS

RICK.

and once again decisions.

of open and concrete ends of a nation were being aims of policy. pages had all but schools, as also the in wood or metal, is falling off in the king science or art been one of sufficient effort on the part. There had been an ip, so large and so surprising. This, effect on the internal on. The apathy so st individuals and place to a keenness refreshing. In its was safe to say that sociation was never moved a vote of ent for his address. ed to the importance on, and said there for an inquiry into of secondary educa- ar of office the out- performed untiring tion. He had two is credit. One was membership, and the